

Ebola and the UK - What did we learn and what action must we take?

Thursday 5th November 2015

09:30-16:30

Manchester Conference Centre M1 3BB

This meeting is organised by BIA working closely with NHS England, Public Health England and Health Protection Scotland to offer an informative update day and discuss future directions

Global perspective - epidemiology overview of Ebola

Dr Colin Brown, Infectious Diseases Lead, King's Sierra Leone Partnership

The clinical course of Ebola - what do we know now?

Dr Tom Fletcher, Infectious Diseases Registrar, Liverpool

Use of experimental agents in Ebola and management of needlestick injuries

Dr Mike Jacobs, Lead Consultant, High Level Isolation Unit, Royal Free London

Experience of diagnosing an imported case of Ebola

Dr Emma Thomson, Consultant ID Physician, Glasgow

Managing paediatric admissions and families

Dr Marieke Emonts, Consultant Paediatrician, Newcastle

R IPL perspective of managing Ebola testing in the UK

Dr Emma Aarons, Consultant Virologist, Rare and Imported Pathogen Laboratory PHE, Porton Down

Experience of setting up Ebola Treatment Centres in West Africa

Dr Sharon Irvine, Infectious Diseases Registrar, Glasgow

Managing Ebola preparations and logistics - the wider NHS perspective

Stephen Groves, National Head of Emergency Preparedness, Resilience and Response, NHS England

Critical care management of severe Ebola

Sierra Leone - Dr Stuart Dickson, Consultant in Intensive Care Medicine, Plymouth
UK experience - Dr Dan Martin, Consultant in Intensive Care Medicine, Royal Free Hospital, London

Is it ethical to treat Ebola patients in a critical care setting outside of HLIU?

Dr Mike Beadsworth, Consultant ID Physician, Liverpool

Managing the media

Emma Kearney, Director of Communications, Royal Free Hospital, London

Post-EVD sequelae 'Ebola survivor syndrome', viral persistence and host genetics

Dr Nathalie MacDermott, Registrar in Paediatrics, Imperial College Healthcare NHS Trust

Nursing management of Ebola in the UK

Breda Athan, Senior Sister, High Level Isolation Unit, Royal Free, London

Processing category 4 samples in the laboratory

Dr Rob Shorten, Clinical Scientist, Public Health Laboratory, Manchester

Public health response - screening at port of entry, managing returning HCW

Ask the Experts: How to apply the lessons from Ebola to the next event...

REGISTRATION FEES:

Consultants: £80

Trainees/Scientists/Nurses: £50

Further information and online registration available at www.hartleytaylor.co.uk

We acknowledge BIA, NHS England and pharmaceutical companies for their financial support

Supported by