

49th Medical Emergencies Course for Trainee Doctors

Saturday 14th & Sunday 15th October 2017

The UCH Education Centre, 250 Euston Road, London NW1 2PG

CPD Approval Pending– Royal College of Anaesthetists

OUTLINE PROGRAMME

Saturday 14th October

09.30 Registration & coffee

TOPICS:

What Constitutes a Sick Patient?
Hypothermia, Hyperthermia, Overdose
Dyspnoea, Acute Asthma
Pneumothorax
Oliguria, Acute Kidney Injury
Hypotensive Patient, the Septic Patient
GI Emergencies

17.30 Close

Sunday 15th October

09.00 Registration & coffee

TOPICS:

Metabolic Emergencies
Myocardial Infarction, Chest Pain
Unconscious Patient,
Status Epilepticus, Meningitis
Acute Heart Failure, Arrhythmias

15.30 Close

SPEAKERS

Professor Mervyn Singer, Professor of Intensive Care Medicine, University College London
Dr David Brealey, Consultant in Anaesthesia & Critical Care, University College London Hospitals
Professor Geoff Bellingan, Professor of Intensive Care Medicine, University College London
Dr Chris Laing, Consultant Nephrologist, UCL Centre for Nephrology
Dr Robert Bell, Consultant Cardiologist, University College London Hospitals
Dr Michael Chapman, Consultant Gastroenterologist, University College London Hospitals
... and more

Registration Fee: £295.00

Online registration is now available at: www.hartleytaylor.co.uk

For information on this, or any future UCL courses, please contact derry@hartleytaylor.co.uk or telephone 01296 584172

Note: The order of the talks may change. A full programme will be available nearer the time.