

Current Perspectives in Haematological Malignancies 2017

Dates & Venues: 10:30am- 5:30pm

London 5th July Brunei Gallery, SOAS, Russell Square

Edinburgh 11th October Royal College of Surgeons

Manchester 12th October Sackville St Building, Manchester

Bath 22nd November Assembly Rooms, Bath

Chair: Professor Adrian Newland, Barts Health NHS Trust

Speakers include:

Dr Andrew McMillan Nottingham City Hospital

Professor Graham Jackson NCCC, Newcastle

Dr George Follows Addenbrooke's Hospital, Cambridge

Dr Mike Dennis Christie Hospital, Manchester

Professor Tim Illidge Christie Hospital, Manchester

Dr Anne Parker Queen Elizabeth Hospital, Glasgow

Dr Stephen Robinson University Hospitals of Bristol

Guest Speakers:

Professor Paul Cockwell Consultant Nephrologist, Birmingham

Dr Tim Cross Consultant Hepatologist, Liverpool

Topics include:

Supportive Care Workshop

- ITP – aplasia and liver disease
- MDS – anaemia associated thrombosis
- PNH in MDS
- infection prevention & treatment – what's new in haematology

Chronic Lymphoblastic Leukaemia

- molecular pathways of targeted treatment
- clinical updates and daily dilemmas

Acute Leukaemia

- options in managing relapsed AML
- ALL adolescence to adulthood

Myeloma

- treatment of relapsed refractory

Organ Dysfunction

- hepatic complications
- paraprotein and renal complications

Lymphoma

- challenging cases, applying the evidence
- immune checkpoints, imaging to radiotherapy

Post Lugano update (Edinburgh, Manchester & Bristol)

Please visit www.hartleytaylor.co.uk for full programmes and online registration for any of the above meetings

For further information contact sandra@hartleytaylor.co.uk or telephone 01565 621967