

Immunotherapy for Haematological Malignancies - the Future

YORK

Monday 25th September 2017

The Principal Hotel, Station Rd,
York, YO24 1AA (next to train station)

9.30 - 17.00

Chairs: Graham Jackson & Gordon Cook

Programme designed by Chairs with Expert Panel and put together by Hartley Taylor. Sponsorship provided by Mallinckrodt.

TOPICS TO INCLUDE:

Basic Science & General Themes

- Immunotherapy diagnostics
- Immune senescence: the problem behind immunotherapy in the older population
- How haematological tumours avoid immunosurveillance
- GvHD – from bench to bedside
- Immunomodulation, ECP in combination therapy
- Immune toxicity – complications of CAR T-cell therapy
- Checkpoint directed immunotherapeutics - experience in oncology

Afternoon: Disease Specific Immunotherapy

- Multiple Myeloma
- Acute Lymphoblastic Leukaemia
- Chronic Lymphocytic Leukaemia
- Hodgkin's Lymphoma
- General Lymphoma

SPEAKERS TO INCLUDE:

Dr Cathy Burton, Leeds
Dr Graham Collins, Oxford
Professor Paul Veys, GOSH
Dr Rakesh Popat, UCLH
Professor Matt Collin, Newcastle

Professor Gordon Cook, Leeds
Dr Rohini Radia, Nottingham
Professor Ruth Plummer, Newcastle
Dr Clare Rowntree, Bristol
Dr Kim Linton, Manchester

With panel discussion throughout the day

Register online at www.hartleytaylor.co.uk or email aimee@hartleytaylor.co.uk